WAC Gun Show Field Trip

Date: Sunday April 30, 2017

Time: Noon – 2:00 PM

Location: Puyallup Fair and Events Center

Washington Arms Collectors (WAC) is a non-profit corporation that organizes the largest gun show in Washington State. They have been around since 1952 and are a NRA affiliated organization. They offer memberships or you can pay at the door to enter the show. Membership details and benefits can be found at www.washingtonarmscollectors.org.

If this is your first visit, there will be a lot for you to see! There are various venter booths with everything from firearms* to conceal carry purses and accessories. Food concession booths are also open.

*Note: The WAC does not allow sales of firearms to non-members. Membership requires a CPL or a background check. They have strict safety rules, including all firearms must be unloaded and locked open before entering. If you conceal carry this can be done at the front gate.

The cost to enter for non-members is $10.00

Parking is free

RSVP is required. Send RSVP to Jane Milhans milhans@live.com

A Citizen's Response to a Live Shooting Situation.

Date: Thursday May 4, 2017

Time: 6:00 PM – 9:00 PM

Location: Charles Wright Academy, Middle School Multipurpose Room
7723 Chambers Creek Road W, Tacoma, WA 98467

Guest Speaker: Deputy Dan Hacker, University Place Police Department

As a firearm owner it is your responsibility to be prepared for any situation. The information at this event will go into more depth than the Sheriff presentation we had in November 2016.

Deputy Hacker will be presenting information to prepare you in the event that you are ever involved in a live shooting situation whether it is out in public or in your home. How do you respond if there is an active killer in public? Do you remove the threat? How do you respond to law enforcement when they arrive at a scene? This and much more will be the topic of the presentation this evening. Dan Hacker has been a Law Enforcement Officer for over 25 years. He has been a Defensive Tactics Instructor for over 11 years. SWAT Team member for over 14 years. Firearms instructor and Instructor of Survival/Preparedness classes

This class will be open to the entire TRRC membership.

Volunteers will be needed to assist with setting up, registration, etc. If you are a TRRC member you can use the volunteer time to reduce the cost of your annual membership.

Space is limited and a RSVP is REQUIRED!

Basic Pistol Maintenance

Date: Sunday May 14, 2017

Time: 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM

Location: TRRC Classroom

Maintaining your firearm is essential for proper functioning and safety. Just like you maintain your car, your firearm needs regular maintenance. You need to clean your pistol every time you use it.

What to bring? Here are some suggestions: (If you do not have everything, don't worry, come with what you have.) You may bring your rifle to this event although the focus will be pistols.

1. Pistol unloaded. No ammunition is allowed in the classroom. You will check it in at the door.
2. A cleaning kit for the caliber of the pistol you are bringing.
3. Cleaners: My favorite is CLP, it is both a cleaner and lubricant.
4. Lubricant
5. Cleaning patches for the caliber of your pistol.

6. Bore Snake for the caliber of your pistol.
7. A towel or mat to lay your pistol on.
8. Disposable gloves
9. NRA Guide to the Basics of Pistol Shooting (If you took the NRA Basic Pistol Course.)

RSVP is required and class size is limited. To ensure your RSVP, you need to email me directly with this information about the pistol that you are bringing. Send RSVP to Jane Milhans milhans@live.com

- a. Make
- b. Model
- c. Caliber

Volunteers are appreciated! If you know how to clean your firearm would you like to volunteer? Please contact me directly.

NO Show Policy for the TRRC Women's Group Events

Because many of our events will be subject to a limited class size, have a guest speaker, require additional range personnel or volunteers that need to be scheduled in advance a strict No Show Policy will be in effect for many events.

1. If you are no longer able to attend: Please contact the TRRC Women's Coordinator a minimum of 24 hours before the scheduled event start time.

2. If you No Show to an event, you will automatically be put on the wait list for all future events and only allowed to participate if there is available space.
3. All pre-paid events will require payment by a specific date. If payment is not received, you will forfeit your place for that event.
4. These policies are subject to change.
